Return excess rent, Miaa ordered

Build them [resorts] and they [tourists] will come–DOT

By Edwin C. Tordes Jr.

PANGLAO ISLAND, BOHOL—Saying that the growth in foreign tourist arrivals will greatly depend on an increase in accommodations, the Department of Tourism yesterday called on investors to invest more in tourist resorts in the country.

"The growth of tourist arrivals is dependent on the pace of capacity expansion," Tourism Secretary Joseph Ace Durano said yesterday as he toured the newly opened five-star Eskaya Beach Resort and Spa located on the white sand beach of this province's island, not far from Bohol's famed Chocolate Hills.

He said the involvement of the private sector was important for the DOT to achieve its target of bringing in more than 5 million foreign tourists yearly by 2010.

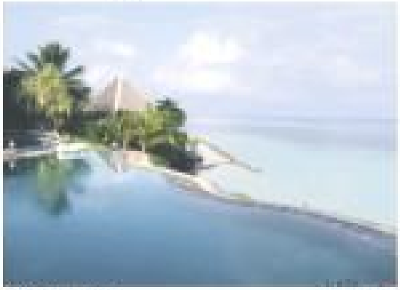

This year, the DOT is targeting at least 3.1 million foreign tourist arrivals.

Durano said tourist arrivals had been growing an average of 14 percent annually in the last three years, [illegible] "It means we are getting a bigger part of the pie," he said.

Foreign tourists generate more economic activity than domestic tourists, he said. [illegible]

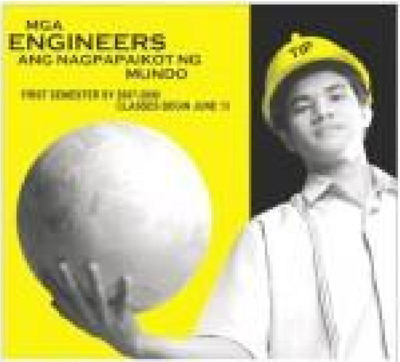

He said 3,000 new rooms will be opening up this year.

Keeping the Philippines Bird Flu-Free: It's in our Hands

That's the good news. And it's well worth repeating: The Philippines, as you read this, is bird flu-free. But that's a headline that can change quicker than you can fry an egg if we aren't careful.

IWAS BIRD FLU

Signs of Bird Flu in Birds

- Sudden death without clinical signs
- Lack of energy and appetite
- Decreased egg production
- Soft shelled or misshapen eggs
- Swelling of the head, eyelids, comb, wattles and hocks
- Purpled discoloration of the wattles, combs and legs
- Nasal discharge
- Coughing, sneezing
- Incoordination
- Diarrhea

Tips on how to protect yourself from Bird Flu

- Practice proper hygiene.
- Protect the children.
- Protect yourself and your workers.
- Protect your neighbors.

Pinoy Holocaust sculpture to rise in Israel

"I cannot imagine ... a more fitting symbol for this occasion than ... open doors, literally, dramatically and so contemporarily designed as open doors"–Junyee

By Paul Blanco Zafaralla
Contributor

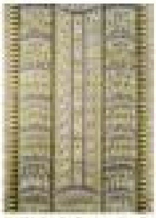

DIPLOmatic relations—friendly, strong, uninterrupted and warm—have been a continuing state policy between the Philippines and Israel for almost half a century now. Such relations might have found their seminal period when Carlos P. Romulo, then Philippine ambassador to the United Nations, cast the crucial vote in favor of an independent Israel. Date: May 14, 1942. It was a Friday.

A THOUR CROSSING I MADE through Cirebon and Solo in Central Java flashed me back, totally and out of the blue, to a landscape of my youth, when I would spend part of my yearly summer holiday in Negros Oriental, surrounded by the same sugar cane fields that I was surprised to see in, of all places, Indonesia.

Sugar planting has created a similar landscape and life pattern in all plantation lands, whether Philippine, Indonesian, Caribbean or Latin American
